

With New-Made Songs, Let God Be Praised

From Psalm 98:1-4

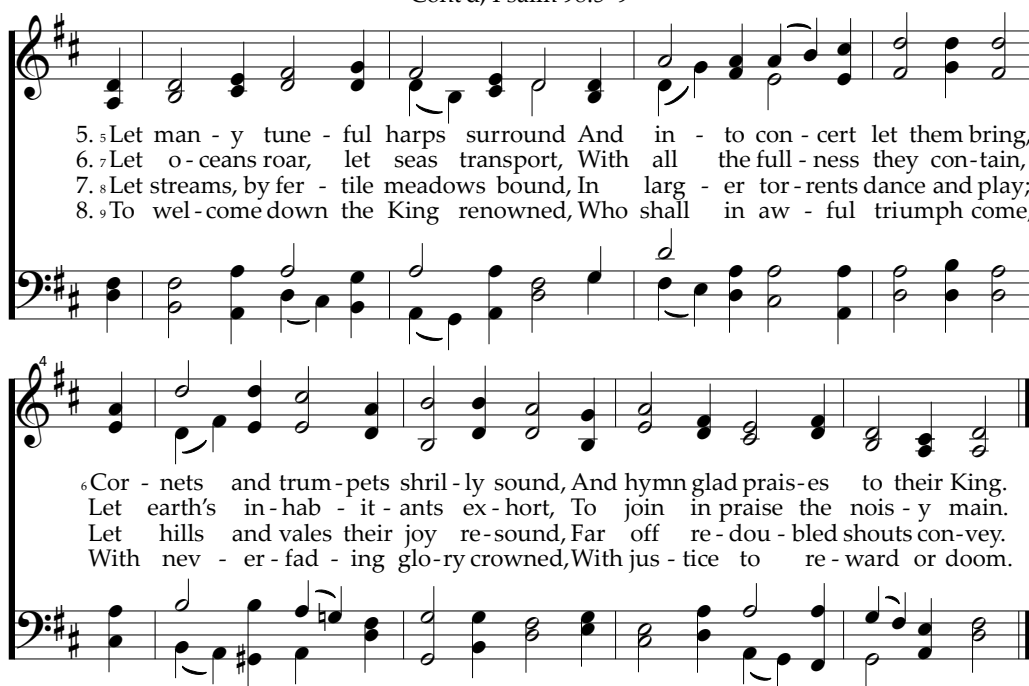

1. ¹ With new-made songs, let GOD be praised, Who won-drous things for us hath done
 2. ² The LORD, who to the world, dismayed, De-clared His strength and sav-ing might,
 3. ³ The Lord, whose love and truth ex-cels, Of Is-rael's house hath mind-ful been;
 4. ⁴ Let earth's in-hab-it-ants com-bine, Their joy-ful voic-es to Him raise;

With His right hand and arm up-raised, A glo-rious con-quest He has won.
 He hath His right-eous acts dis-played, Be-fore th'a-ston-ished hea-thens sight.
 And na-tions who earth's cor-ners dwells, The sav-ing pow'r of God have seen.
 Let all in songs of tri-umph join To loud-ly sound their Mak-er's praise.

With New-Made Songs, Let God Be Praised

Cont'd, Psalm 98:5-9

5. ⁵ Let man-y tune-ful harps surround And in-to con-cert let them bring,
 6. ⁷ Let o-ceans roar, let seas transport, With all the full-ness they con-tain,
 7. ⁸ Let streams, by fer-tile meadows bound, In larg-er tor-rents dance and play;
 8. ⁹ To wel-come down the King renowned, Who shall in aw-ful triumph come,

⁶ Cor-nets and trum-pets shril-ly sound, And hymn glad prais-es to their King.
 Let earth's in-hab-it-ants ex-hort, To join in praise the nois-y main.
 Let hills and vales their joy re-sound, Far off re-dou-bled shouts con-vey.
 With nev-er-fad-ing glo-ry crowned, With jus-tice to re-ward or doom.
