

The Earth Belongs to God Our LORD

From Psalm 24

1. <sup>1</sup>The earth be - longs to God our LORD And all the full -
 2. <sup>3</sup>Who shall as - cend up - on God's hill And stand with - in
 3. <sup>5</sup>He shall re - ceive a bless - ed gift, And right - eous - ness
 4. <sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, ye mas - sive gates, Lift up your heads,
 5. <sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, ye mas - sive gates, Lift up your heads, ness it con - tains, The world, and those who dwell be - low.

 His ho - ly place? <sup>4</sup>The one who has pure hands and heart, from his own God; <sup>6</sup>His God is Ja - cob's ho - ly God.
 e - ter - nal doors. The King of glo - ry en - ters now.
 e - ter - nal doors. The King of glo - ry en - ters now.

<sup>2</sup>The earth on seas is found - ed, The world on floods is ground - ed.
 All van - i - ty for - sak - ing, In ly - ing not par - tak - ing.
This is the gen - er - a - tion That seeks out His sal - va - tion.
<sup>8</sup>Who is this King of glo - ry? In bat - tle, song and sto - ry?
<sup>10</sup>Who is this King of glo - ry? The LORD of hosts in glo - ry.

Music: Heinrich Schütz, 1628
 Text: Douglas Wilson, 2001 ©

DIE ERD UND WAS SICH [BECKER 24]
 8 8 8. 77.