

Once I Said, "I Must Keep Quiet"

From Psalm 39 portions

1. ¹Once I said, "I must keep qui - et Lest I sin in
 2. ⁴"LORD, are You re - veal - ing lim - its, How my days look
 3. ⁷"Why, O Lord, must I keep wait - ing When my hope is
 4. ¹⁰"But, my Lord, Your heav - y bur - den Wears me out and
 5. ¹²"Can You see, LORD, I am cry - ing? Do not spurn my harsh dis - pute. Just to see the wick - ed near me An - gers in Your sight? ⁵Just a breath and fleet - ing shad - ow Slip - ping still in You? ⁸Keep me, Lord, from sin and trou - ble, From the weighs me down. ¹¹All Your dis - ci - pline for sin - ning Hurts and sore un - rest. I pass by like those be - fore me, Yet I me, but I stay mute." ³Yet I could not hold my fu - ry, by in use - less flight? Yes, I know our lives are frag - ile, wrong I would pur - sue. Save me from the fool's loud laugh - ter—bows me to the ground. Must You eat a - way my treas - ures claim to be Your guest! ¹³No more sad - ness— give me glad - ness, ¹⁰Burned to vent my sharp cri - tique; Then at last, I had to speak:

⁶That we seem to work in vain— All we have is oth - ers' gain.
⁹I was si - lent; I for - got: You con - trol my trou - bled lot.
 Like a moth? I'm but a breath. Are You fac - ing me with death?
 Be my hope be - fore I cease. Lord, dear Lord, I beg for peace."
