

Hear My Voice, O God

From Psalm 64

1. Hear my voice, O God; heed my an - guish. Save me from my
 2. They have whet their tongues sharp as dag - gers. They aim cru - el
 3. With im - pu - ni - ty they are preen - ing, "Who will see our
 4. With their ar - rows, Lord, shoot and pierce them. Let their own vile
 5. But all look on God rapt with won - der; All His might - y foes lest they van - quish. 2 Hide me from the schemes and the darts, bit - ter an - ger. 4 They shoot blame - less men, make them snares or our schem - ing?" 6 What im - ag - in - ings, what dark tongue be what spears them. Though they thought them - selves strong and deeds they will pon - der. 10 Right - eous men will trust and give plans which These re - bel - lious men se - cret - ly de - vise.

 stag - ger. There's no fear of God in their wick - ed hearts.
 dream - ings Lie deep in the thoughts and the heart of man!
 fierce men, 8 All who look on them turn a - way in scorn.
 hon - or To the LORD and sing glo - ry to His name.

Music: Jean Sibelius (1865–1957); arr.
 Text: Valerie Anne Bost, 2018 ©

NORTHRIGHT
 9 9 9. 10.