

All, All My Trust

From Psalm 31:1-10

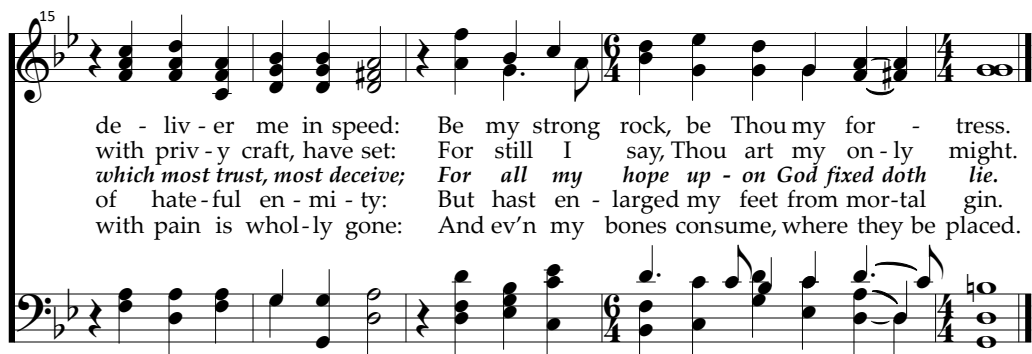

1. All, all my trust, LORD, I have put in Thee. Nev - er, there - fore, let
 2. In deed Thou art my rock, my for - tress: Then since my tongue de -
 3. In - to Thy hands do I com - mit my spir't: For it is Thou that
 4. Thy mer - cy shall fill me with jol - li - ty, For my an - noys have
 5. O LORD, of Thee let me still mer - cy win; For trou - bles, from all me con - found - ed be, But save me, save me in my right - eous - ness.

 lights that name to bless, Di - rect me how to go, and guide me right.
hast re - stored my light, O LORD, which art the God of ver - i - ty.
 come be - fore Thine eye: Thou well hast known that plunge my soul was in.
 sides, have me with - in. My eye, my guts, yea, my soul, grief doth waste.

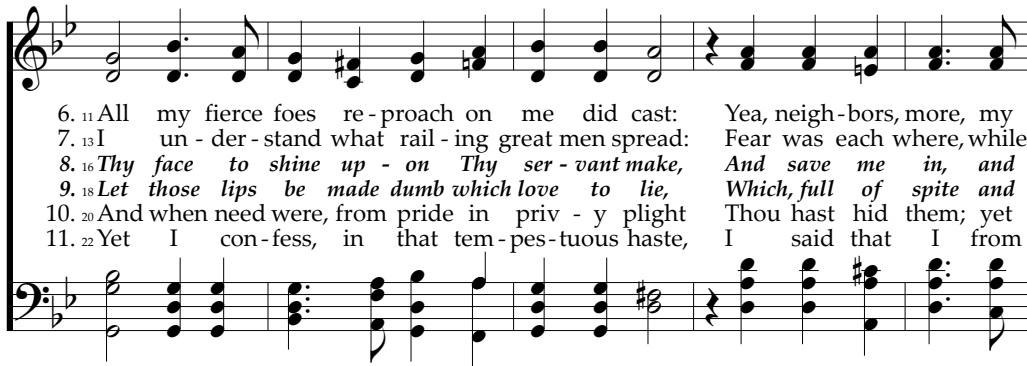

2 Bow down Thine ear to hear how much I need; De - liv - er me,
 4 Pre - serve me from the wil - y wrap - ping net, Which they for me,
 6 I hat - ed all those men whose thoughts do cleave To van - i - ties;
 8 And Thou hast not for aye en - clos - ed me With - in the hand
 10 My life with heav - i - ness, my years with moan Do pine: my strength de - liv - er me in speed: Be my strong rock, be Thou my for - tress.

 with priv - y craft, have set: For still I say, Thou art my on - ly might.
which most trust, most deceive; For all my hope up - on God fixed doth lie.
 of hate - ful en - mi - ty: But hast en - larged my feet from mor - tal gin.
 with pain is whol - ly gone: And ev'n my bones consume, where they be placed.

All, All My Trust

Cont'd, Psalm 31:11-23

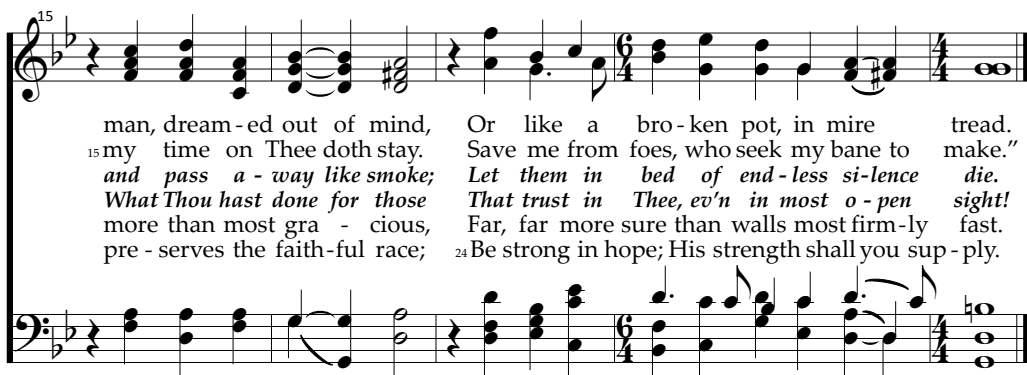

6. <sup>11</sup>All my fierce foes re-proach on me did cast: Yea, neigh-bors, more, my
 7. <sup>13</sup>I un-der-stand what rail-ing great men spread: Fear was each where, while
 8. <sup>16</sup>Thy face to shine up - on Thy ser-vant make, And save me in, and
 9. <sup>18</sup>Let those lips be made dumb which love to lie, Which, full of spite and
 10. <sup>20</sup>And when need were, from pride in priv-y plight Thou hast hid them; yet
 11. <sup>22</sup>Yet I con-fess, in that tem-pes-tuous haste, I said that I from mates, were so a-ghost, That in the streets from sight of me they fled.

 they their coun-cils led All to this point: how my poor life to take.
 for, Thy mer-cy's sake; <sup>17</sup>Let me not taste of shame, O LORD most high.
pride and cru-el-ty, Do throw their words a-gainst the most up-right.
 leav-ing them Thy light, From strife of tongues, in Thy pa-vil-ions placed.
 out Thy sight was cast; But Thou didst hear when I to Thee did moan.

<sup>12</sup>Now I, now I my-self for-got-ten find, Ev'n like a dead
<sup>14</sup>But I did trust in Thee, LORD; I did say, "Thou art my God;
For I have called on Thee; let wick-ed folk Con-found-ed be,
<sup>19</sup>Oh, of Thy grace what end-less pleas-ure flows To whom fear Thee!
<sup>21</sup>Then praise, then praise I do the Lord of us Who was to me
<sup>23</sup>Oh, love the Lord, all ye that know His grace; Who prunes the proud, man, dream-ed out of mind, Or like a bro-ken pot, in mire tread.

<sup>15</sup>my time on Thee doth stay. Save me from foes, who seek my bane to make."
and pass a-way like smoke; Let them in bed of end-less si-lence die.
What Thou hast done for those That trust in Thee, ev'n in most o-pen sight!
 more than most gra-cious, Far, far more sure than walls most firm-ly fast.
 pre-serves the faith-ful race; <sup>24</sup>Be strong in hope; His strength shall you sup-ply.