From Psalm 9:1-12

1. <sup>1</sup>O LORD, my heart will praise You; Your mar - vels I'll pro - claim.
2. <sup>5</sup>You have re - buked the na - tions, The wick - ed are de - stroyed.
3. <sup>7</sup>The LORD shall reign e - ter - nal; He set His judg - ment throne.
4. <sup>10</sup>You win the full re - li - ance Of those who know Your name.

<sup>3</sup>I will be glad and praise You; Most High, I'll sing Your name.
You drained their rep - u - ta - tions; Their names for - ev - er void.
<sup>8</sup>He rules the world's tri - bu - nal, He makes His just - ice known.
You nev - er fail the pi - ous, Nor put their faith to shame.

<sup>5</sup>When my op - pon - ents wa - ver, Your face shall make them die.
<sup>6</sup>De - struc - tion shows no pi - ty; The foe is ter - ri - fied!
He gov - erns ev - 'ry na - tion With eq - ual right - eous - ness.
<sup>11</sup>Sing praise to GOD in Zi - on! Tell men His sav - ing deeds!

<sup>4</sup>You judged my case with fa - vor; Your truth sat throned on high.
You have de - stroyed their ci - ty; All thought of them has died.
<sup>9</sup>He saves from sub - ju - ga - tion; A shield from cruel dis - tress.
<sup>12</sup>For He re - deems the dy - ing, He hears their hum - ble pleas.

The wick - ed man is cap - tured, By works of his own hands.
Their ex - pec - ta - tion in You, Shall nev - er be un - done.
That ev - 'ry pride - ful na - tion May know them - selves but men.
