

Psalm 14

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt,

4 they have done a-bom-i-na-ble works, there is none that do-eth good.

8 The LORD looked down from Heav'n up-on the chil-dren of men,

12 to see if there were an-y that did un-der-stand, and seek God.

17 They are all gone a-side, they are all to-geth-er be-come filth-y:

21 there is none that do-eth good, no, not one.

24 Have all the work-ers of in-iq-ui-ty no know-ledge?

27 who eat up my peo-ple as they eat bread, and call not up-on the LORD.

32 There were they in great fear: for God is in the gen-er-a-tion of the right-eous.

37 Ye have shamed the coun-sel of the poor, be-cause the LORD is his re-fuge.

3-part canon

42 Oh that the sal-va-tion of Is-ra-el were come out of Zi-on!

46 When the LORD bring-eth back the cap-ti-vi-ty of His peo-ple,

50 Ja-cob shall re-joice, and Is-ra-el shall be glad.
